Excerpts from the HOTARC By-laws

(see <http://hotarc.org> for complete by-laws)

2.01 Classes of Members: The corporation shall have four (4) classes of members. The designation of such classes and the qualifications and rights of members of such classes shall be as follows:

(1) A Full Member must be a natural person who holds an amateur radio license recognized by the Federal Communications Commission. A Full Member shall be entitled to all privileges available to any member of the corporation. Only Full Members shall have voting rights or hold elective offices.

(2) Any member of the immediate family of a Full Member may be a Family Member. A Family Member shall have all privileges of Full Members except

- (a) they shall not have any right to vote, and
- (b) they shall not hold any elective office.

(3) Any person or group of persons interested in amateur radio may be an Associate Member. An Associate Member shall have all the privileges of Full Members except

- (a) they shall not have any right to vote, and
- (b) they shall not hold any elective office.

(4) Lifetime Honorary Membership. (See Amendment 7.) Any full member can submit a written nomination to the Board of Directors for consideration of a lifetime honorary membership for an individual who has provided the organization with outstanding service. This individual can be a current or previous member of the organization. They will have all the privileges of Full Members except

- (a) they shall not have the right to vote, and
- (b) they shall not hold any elective office.

2.02 Election of Members: All applicants for membership shall submit to the Board of Directors a completed application form. The Board of Directors shall act as a screening committee of all applications and shall present all applications to the next regular meeting of the full membership with a recommendation either for or against each applicant. An applicant shall become a member upon two-thirds (2/3) vote of the members present and constituting a quorum. All votes concerning membership shall be taken when the Full Membership is in executive session.

2.03 Voting Rights: Each Full Member shall be entitled to one vote on each matter submitted to a vote of the members.

11.01: Dues for membership shall be set by a majority of the Board of Directors, at a regular or called meeting. The Board shall assess projected dues in September of each year. Dues shall be voted on in the Annual Meeting. There shall not be any dues required of a Family Member and those holding Lifetime Honorary Memberships. (See Amendments Five, Seven.)

11.02 Payment of Dues: Dues shall be payable in advance on the first day of January in each fiscal year. Dues of a new member shall be prorated from the first day of the month in which such new member is elected to membership, for the remainder of the period. Periods shall be January 1 to June 30; July 1 to December 31. Dues may be paid annually or semi-annually.
